This special double-issue edition calls immediate attention to our vast and varied inventory of stamps. Naturally, due to the limitation of space, only a small fraction of our incredibly extensive worldwide stock can be presented at this time. For those of you who still can't find those elusive "Hard-to-find" stamps or you're working on a country not mentioned here, or you may be a numismatist interested in coins of a specific type or grade, simply fill out the coupon below and receive MoneyTalks free for the next 6 months. Send us your want list and let us check through our stock and give you the most favorable price quote in town.

Many of the items in this issue are of a one-of-a-kind nature. Therefore, we suggest a phone call to reserve your selection, or to place credit card orders. Outside California toll free at (800) 421-0754; within California (213) 278-9740. All major credit cards accepted. Be assured that you may order with complete confidence, satisfaction guaranteed, or your money will be refunded.

For over 50 years, SUPERIOR has been of service to the philatelic and numismatic communities of the world. We have served thousands of clients in our 54 year history and in addition to our many retail accounts, we are also active wholesalers and auctioneers. Dealer orders are welcome!

As a special offer, any new accounts purchasing $15.00 or more, will receive a complimentary one year subscription to MoneyTalks.

If you are ever in the Los Angeles / Beverly Hills area, why not stop by and visit us at our spacious store front location in the heart of Beverly Hills.

Good reading and welcome to the world of MoneyTalks!

North African Square Silver Dirhem. Tunis, Religious legend in three lines. Hazard 1088. 12th-13th Century AD. Almost Extremely Fine.
The main objective of this anonymous propaganda was most probably the religious propaganda in accordance with the profession of faith. The legends say Allah is our Lord, Muhammad is our Prophet, the Mahdi is our Imam. These coins were mainly produced in North Africa during the 12th and 13th Centuries AD. The quality of the kufi or naskhi script on most of the specimens is remarkable. According to Ben Ramdhane, RN 1979, p. 147, the square form given to the dirhem could symbolize the four qualities of the Imam: science, integrity, competence, good mental and physical health.

Those of you who are already members of our F.D.C. Club know its many advantages. For those of you who don't let me tell you what services we provide. Firstly, we automatically send you all U.S. First Day Covers issued in the course of the year. This includes all regular, commemorative and airmail stamps, aerogrammes, postal cards and booklet panes. We also provide such covers as Inauguration and other special event covers. This is done on an automatic basis, periodically 3-4 times a year. The cost is either deducted from your deposit, or charged to your MasterCard or VISA. There is no cost for the service - you just pay for the covers. We have extended our coverage to the covers of the UNITED NATIONS, both New York, Geneva and Austria. While the U.N. doesn't issue many covers (only 4-5 issues per year) they are quite attractive. Those of you

Here's you chance to acquire one of the most famous coins of ancient biblical times. . .in very good condition. . . guaranteed genuine. . .at a remarkably low price. . . Just $37.50. Buy one for yourself, and several additional specimens that will make distinctive and memorable gifts.

A Few Words About Ancient Augurs...

Two thousand years ago, before the Roman Emperor or a Consul, or a General, or any government official would make a political decision . . . sign a treaty, go into battle, become betrothed. . . it had to be under the auspices of an augur - an ancient priest. Note that these words are still in common use with their original meanings virtually intact. Auspices is "A prophetic sign, generally favorable," according to the dictionary. Augur is "To predict the future especially from omens." And in light of the necessity of consulting with an augur, is it any wonder that the consecration of a new public official was and is still called an inAUGURation?

The augury priesthood continued until the end of the Fourth Century AD, having remained an important ancient institution for a thousand years. The augurs, who were appointed for life, maintained permanent observation posts at important public meeting places; it was forbidden to construct any new buildings that might interfere with their ceremonies. If the constitutional character of a public act was called into question, an unfavorable omen detected by the augur would cause the act to be immediately annulled. One can only wonder if the Procurator Pilate consulted with an augur before making his critical decisions.

A RARE OPPORTUNITY TO ACQUIRE A HIGH GRADE
GENUINE 'WIDOW'S MITE' FROM THE MACCABEAN
PERIOD FOR ONLY... $75.00

With few exceptions, the design of the basic ancient Judaeen small bronze coin (called "lepton" or "prutah" or "mite") remained virtually unchanged from the time of the first issue probably struck by John Hyrcanus (135-104 BC) to the last of the Maccabean line, Mattathias Antigonus (40-37 BC).

With few exceptions, the design of the basic ancient Judaeen small bronze coin (called "lepton" or "prutah" or "mite") remained virtually unchanged from the time of the first issue probably struck by John Hyrcanus (135-104 BC) to the last of the Maccabean line, Mattathias Antigonus (40-37 BC).

The Hebrew inscription indicates the name of the Jewish ruler followed by the title "High Priest" and "The Community of the Jews" referring either to the general population or an official assembly, "The senhedrin."

These small bronze coins were witness to the rise and fall of the Judaeen state. Subsequent bronze coins were issued in new designs by the usurper Herod and his descendants, and the Roman appointed Procurators. It was not until the First (66-70 AD) and Second Revolts (132-135 AD) that strictly Jewish coinage was again briefly produced.

But even though the Maccabean-Hasmonean Dynasty faded away with the victory of Herod in 37 BC, their coins did not. The cornucopiae/wreath "mites" continued to circulate in Judaea, along with new Herodian and Procurator issues, well into the First Century . . . and thus they were also witness to the rise of Christianity. And, in particular, it could have been these small bronzes that were used in the famous story of the "Widow's Mite":

"And Jesus sat over against the treasury, and beheld how the people cast money into the treasury: and many that were rich cast much. And there came a certain poor widow, and she threw in two mites, which make a farthing. And he called unto him his disciples, and saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, that this poor widow hath cast more in, than all.

SILVER COINS FROM A FORGOTTEN ANCIENT KINGDOM

Only $9.50 or less!

We know about the Romans and Greeks. . . the Goths and Vandals. . . the Judaeans and Armenians. But few have even heard of the Sassanians. And yet Sassanian King Shapur I (241-272 AD) destroyed the Roman army at Messice and the Emperor Gordian was killed leading his troops. The new Roman Emperor Philip "The Arab" gave the Sassanians 500,000 dinas and became their tributary.

A few years later Shapur attacked the Roman Empire and destroyed an army of 60,000 men at Barbalissus in Syria; the Sassanians went on to capture 37 Roman cities! Roman Emperor Jovian (363-364 AD) was forced to give up Armenia to Shapur II.

The Sassanian Empire stretched from India to Syria, from Armenia to the Persian Gulf. The armies of Khosrow II (590-628 AD) even captured Antioch, Damascus and Jerusalem and occupied Egypt. But all of these battles had exhausted the Persians, and in 640 AD, an Arab invasion was successful in ending the 400 years of the Sassanian Dynasty.

Besides great rock sculptures and crumbling palaces, gold and enameled metal work, that can only be enjoyed by tourists and historians, the ancient Sassanian civilization left their coins which are remarkably affordable. These silver coins have never been sold for less than our current offering. . . thanks to our fortunate purchase of a recently unearthed hoard!

One side of this large (size of a quarter) silver dirham is the crowned profile of an ancient Sassanian ruler who without humility called himself "King of King's of Iran and Non-Iran." The reverse design depicts a ceremonial fire altar between two priests; alluding to a central theme of the Zoroastrian religion. Originally founded in the Seventh Century BC.

Zoroastrianism was revived and strengthened as the state religion by the Sassanians. The fire represented the good spirit as opposed to the demons of darkness. Only a few Zoroastrians survive in modern Iran; most long ago emigrated to western India. Besides some fragments of sacred writings, only these silver coins remain as a reminder of this almost forgotten empire that once threatened mighty Rome.

We are most pleased to offer authentic 1,500 year old Sassanian Silver Dirhams (slightly larger than a U.S. quarter) in Very Fine to Extremely Fine condition, virtually as struck, at amazing low hoard prices. We have fewer than 100 pieces and will sell them on a first come-first served basis.

THE HALF DOLLAR

A TRADITION IN UNITED STATES NUMISMATICS

Over the years we have seen the rise and fall of various denominations of U.S. coinage. The two most recent falls have been the Silver Dollar and the Half Dollar. The failure of the dollar is probably from when the silver dollars were removed from circulation. Due to their high silver content, we found that the public just would not accept the new Eisenhower Dollar. Certainly the increase in the spot prices of silver account for the disappearance of the Franklins and Silver Dollars. The Kennedy Half Dollar was a coin which could never reach circulation as the public would not circulate the piece. The earlier Franklin and Walking Liberty

Halves represent an era which now accounts for significant numismatic activity and promises to increase in the future.

This month we feature quality Mint State Walking Liberty and Franklin Halves as described. All prices represent unusual numismatic value and the quality is most conservative. When requested with order of $250.00 or more from this offer, we will furnish a Whitman Bookshelf Album without charge to permit the safe storage of your coins. Coins listed have been obtained from gem government mint sets. These are NOT commercial quality coins.

TICKETS FROM THE PAST!

We have just discovered a small lot of 1876 International Exposition Tickets. This was our nation's Centennial Exhibition and these tickets are popular collector's items. We have a very limited quantity of the three major varieties - with out "Fifty Cents," with "Fifty Cents" and with Fifty Cents" overprint. These seldom offered tickets are beautifully engraved on both the obverse and reverse and we suggest a phone call to reserve your order.

EARLY AMERICAN NOSTALGIA LEATHER POSTAL CARDS

These were used in the early 1900's and many portray unusual and cute phrases. Most were actually used and some still have their original penny stamp attached. We obtained these from a very large collection and we look forward to sharing them with you when you place your order.
